

ABOUT OUR People

Genial Claude Sales was in town Monday.

Geo. L. Hackney of Asheville was in town Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Bartlett have returned from their Winter's visit to Florida.

A. W. Calhoun has gone to Abbeville on a combined pleasure and business trip.

Mrs. Noble Johnson has returned from Texas where she has been spending the winter.

Mrs. R. H. Staton has returned from a most pleasant visit to the pleasant town of Charleston.

R. L. Lee and L. M. Killin of Waynesville spent Sunday and Monday in town visiting friends here.

J. W. Bailey, of Tennessee, spent last week in town. Mr. Bailey has leased his building now occupied by Lott's Book Store to the Calhoun-Wilkins Co. who will cut an archway through the separating wall and occupy both stores.

K. G. Morris, of the First National Bank, has an excellent suggestion about advertising the town. On May 20th Charlotte celebrates the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence. President Taft and thousands of people will be there. Mr. Morris suggests that the Board of Trade send a man there on that date with a thousand or more copies of the "Resort and Lake Edition" of the Hustler and there distribute them where they will do the most good.

C. E. Wilson has gone to New York.

Miss Norma Bryson, now filling so acceptably an excellent position in Charlotte, spent Easter with her family here, returning to Charlotte on Monday.

All members of the Improved Order of Red Men will remember that the District Council of the order will meet in Hendersonville at the Wigwam on April 21st.

Rev. Hughes will address the Improved Order of Red Men at the Baptist Church on April 18 at three o'clock. The Red Men will assemble at their Wigwam at one o'clock. The public is invited to attend the services.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Keith have returned from the South. Mr. Keith says he found Hendersonville advertising matter, in the shape of Hotel Gates booklets, in every railroad office in Jacksonville.

The Balfour graded school building will be ready by Fall. Balfour is a comer!

Jno. L. Orr, will operate public service automobiles this summer. There will be at least two machines and probably more.

Capt. John Wofford's trouble with his eyes has now disappeared, much to the Captain's and his many friends' satisfaction.

Miss Spring has been foolin' around old man Winter altogether too long. Talk about her sitting in his lap—she must be married to him!

The brick yard is now in full blast. The new machinery has been installed and the company will soon have an excellent quality of brick ready for the market.

Maurice Lyall spent a couple of days here last week taking photos of the town for a new series of souvenir cards to be published by an Atlanta firm.

Rev. J. L. Brookshire will preach to the Odd Fellows at Mt. Page church near Saluda, on April 18 at 11 o'clock. The public cordially invited.

I. D. Morris of Saluda was in town Friday. Mr. Morris says the town of Saluda is making strenuous efforts to have the Southern move its depot up-town, to occupy site where Sonner's store now stands. Messrs. Sonner will probably erect a new building in the near future.

M. M. Shepherd, who sells the "Patriot" shoe, has been giving out some mighty attractive pocket knives advertising that fine shoe. It's a little brass shoe, with a good knife blade in it and the whole thing encased in a red leather case—very unique advertising.

Population 5000.

Doans Directory of the United States, revision of 1908, gives Hendersonville's population as 4,500, Asheville's population as being 20,000. The new census will be taken in about a year. If Hendersonville intends increasing its corporation limits to include Asheville the town daddies had better get busy right now.

CAPITAL $30,000.00

We accommodate all classes of people. Many persons keep their money here as a permanent investment—we pay four per cent. interest. Others deposit whatever cash they have and pay all bills by check—it's the safe way and far more convenient. Others keep their idle money here, awaiting investment. As lenders, we stand ready to aid any one who is building up a legitimate business.
